WITH CARE FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

At FLEXPACK, we prioritize economic, social, and environmental responsibility. Our daily mission revolves around reimagining packaging to deliver a positive, sustainable impact for both our clients and the environment.

It is our mission to produce high-quality packaging that safeguards food with minimal environmental footprint. This commitment extends to adopting a life cycle approach, ensuring that environmental burdens are not merely shifted from one stage to another. We prioritize the responsible management of materials, aiming for recyclable flexible packaging and acknowledging the significance of the Circular Economy. To this end, in 2018, FLEXPACK established a new group-wide target.

ABOUT US

FLEXPACK

Specializes in flexographic printing, a cornerstone of our operations and a key focus for development. Equipped with cutting-edge flexo printing machines from industry leaders such as COMEXI and Fischer & Krecke, we can proficiently handle up to 8 colors, ensuring both high quality and flexible production schedules to meet your packaging needs.

FLEXPACK excels in full-color printing on a variety of materials including polyethylene (LDPE), pearl, polypropylene (BOPP), and cast foil (CPP), with a maximum foil width of 1300 mm. This versatility allows us to manufacture flexible packages suitable for a wide array of applications, including flexible envelopes, sacks, packaging film, shrink film, industrial roll films, toilet paper packaging, cigarette industry rolls, as well as packaging for pulses, sugar, and salt.

We specialize in bread packaging, offering tailored solutions with flexo printing and assembly options such as Wicket with technological holes and envelopes with stickers. Additionally, we provide promotional bag printing with reinforced handles to enhance your advertising efforts.

Recognizing the importance of quality packaging to our customers, we offer printing in up to 8 colors, providing ample creative freedom to design packaging that meets your exact specifications.
